Information release:

By submitting this information to SHI/NetPosse I understand that the above info may be sent out in public forums and I am giving my consent to do so. Any pictures submitted to SHI can be used on the website and in publications by and related to SHI without notification. I also certify the above information to be true.

*SHI Policy on Recovering Reward Offers

SHI does not accept or disseminate recovery reward offers without a commitment from the owner of the missing horse ("Owner") or other concerned party that the offered reward is genuine, and will be paid as represented upon recovery of the horse. Accordingly, the submission of a recovery reward offer to SHI by the payee constitutes acceptance of, and agreement to, all of the following terms:

1. Payee represents that he or she is financially able to pay the offered reward.
2. The recovery reward offer constitutes an offer to contract which can be accepted by the actions of those undertaking efforts to cause the recovery of the horse.
3. The reward will be paid in full within 15 days of recovery of the horse, to the individual(s) and/or organization(s) specifically including SHI whose action(s) resulted in the recovery.
4. Any dispute over entitlement to or payment of the reward or any portion of the reward will be resolved through a civil action in the Superior Court of Cleveland County, North Carolina, which shall have sole jurisdiction over all such disputes.
5. If a reward is posted on the site, on a flyer made by SHI or owner, in any public forum or any format and a horse/ tack or trailer is found, Stolen Horse International can claim 25% or more of the money for a service fee for services rendered on your behalf.

Check here if you agree to the preceding statements, understand the Information Release above, and state that you have read and agree with the Reward policy.
