I was searching for a family with children to rehome my 2 mares that I've had since birth, they would now be 20 years old, but were in excellent health and beautiful and gentle. I let them go to a home with a man and woman, and their children, to give a couple of weeks trial, and they were to only be returned to me if he could not keep them or it didn't work out, they run numerous false ads on Craigslist wanting a couple of horses for his wife and children, even using a down syndrome child in his ads to give a forever home to spoil and love, mostly run these ads in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana. I was promised pics as soon as they were unloaded in their new stalls, but never received them. The next day I was feeling very uneasy, I was sent a couple of text responses then nothing, then finding out the address to the business in Ann Arbor did not exist. 3 days later he was found on Facebook, with a picture of a trailer and my horses in it, captioned 'last load of beef horses heading to the feed lot. I had him stopped through social media for a couple months, and he filed a Personal Protection Order against me to leave him alone. I had a hearing set finally after 15 months for Friday April 13th, but he had it postponed claiming he was in the hospital.

Please, if you have seen me horses, I need to know where they are!
