Molly was with other horses in the front yard, in the morning the gate was open, other horses still home, she wasn't. Owner now wonders if Molly has been stolen.

"A hardworking six-year-old mare is on the loose in what her owner believes was a theft from a rural property overnight. The bay-coloured Clydesdale draft horse named Molly was last seen Saturday evening in her pen on an Entwistle-area farm west of Edmonton", owner Cindy Thomas said Tuesday, September 25, 2018
